ADDISON COUNTY

MIDDLEBURY.

The second and last day of the Addison county corn growing contest came to a close at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian association on Saturday evening. Nearly every exhibit in the boys' contest was accompanied by a letter to the judges, telling in detail how the corn had been raised. Two little girls from the east part of the county sent in their little exhibits of corn and while they did not secure prizes their names were mentioned by the judges. No small amount of interest was shown by the men exhibitors who carefully guarded their exhibits until they had been passed upon by the judges. During the address by Professor Burdick it was announced that as the first corn contest was a success they would be held every year and an effort made in the future to enter upon the contest on a larger scale. Seventeen prizes were carried off by young farmers' sons. Two prizes were won by men exhibitors while one woman captured two first prizes and in each case her exhibit was pronounced better than those of the men. The first prize in the boys' contest consisted of a two weeks' stay at Camp Abnaki with all expenses paid. This prize was given by the State committee of the Y. M. C. A. All the other prizes in the various contests consisted of gold or bronze cups of various sizes—Wilbur L. Hamilton, formerly of Bridport, and Mrs. Mary Holdridge of this town, who were married at the Episcopal parsonage in Burlington Thursday, have started for Colorado Springs, Colo., where they will pass the winter and may remain for the future.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Foote in Cornwall Wednesday evening of last week, when their daughter, Miss Arabella W. Foote, was united in marriage to Stewart S. Benedict of the same town. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Samuel Jones of Cornwall, pastor of the Congregational Church of that village. Miss Catherine Foote, a sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Ward Benedict, a brother of the groom, was best man. There was a large gathering of friends. They received a large number of costly and useful presents from their many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Foote left on the night train for a wedding trip, after which they will reside in Cornwall.

The fine house in Center Cornwall, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halton and his mother, the widow of the late John Halton, was burned to the ground with most of its contents Sunday morning. The fire caught from a defective stovepipe in the upper story and although the nearest neighbors gathered around as soon as possible they were unable to do anything to save the building and in a couple of hours it was in ruins. Some of the household furniture was saved, but the farm produce in the cellar is a total loss, including potatoes and vegetables. The house was probably worth $2,500 and it is understood that there was only a small insurance. One of the barns at a short distance from the house caught fire three times but the neighbors succeeded in putting out the fire without much damage. W. D. Watson of East Middlebury went Tuesday to the Soldiers' Home to become an inmate of the hospital—John and Richard Ferrie, who have been employed here on the new chemical building at the college for several months, returned to their home in Syracuse, N. Y., Monday night—Monday, market day, eggs brought 28 to 40 cents and butter 28 to 32—The shipment of Monday consisted of three carloads—J. S. Chandler of Ripton informs the Free Press that the item the other day concerning the arrangement of Mary Peet, Alfred Leno and Bertha Guyette before Justice Dickens of Middlebury was incorrect in saying that they all came from Ripton. Mr. Chandler states that the first, Mary Peet, had been in Ripton only a short time, and that the other two were lifelong residents of East Middlebury.

Edward Daniels, chef at the Addison house, returned Monday night after a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in New York city—Mrs. John H. Burns has returned from Rutland after a brief visit with relatives and friends—H. E. Hunt has gone to Burlington on a business trip.

County Fish and Game League had a banquet at the Addison House Tuesday evening. About 150 members of the organization and invited guests sat down. Music was by Vittoria's orchestra of eight pieces. The president of the club, Robert M. McCuen of Vergennes, presided and a large number of speeches were made by different members of the club. During the banquet and the proceedings returns from the presidential election were received—News has been received of the death Monday at Cleveland, Ohio, of Clarence G. Leavenworth, who for the past 25 years has been manager of the Vermont Marble company's office at Cleveland. Mr. Leavenworth was 64 years of age.
